Watching the Olympics

Every two years, the Olympic Games give us a legitimate reason to be arrogant patriots. Screw diplomacy—we want hot wings, gold medals and a round of “USA! USA!”

Where can I watch the Beijing Olympics in the city?
Kimberly N., Upper East Side

The Olympics are...a celebration of international sports excellence.

For scantily clad servers and swimmers

Athletic prowess is great and all, but keeping tabs on the eye candy between medal ceremonies is half the fun. A like-minded crowd will be watching swimming—hello, Michael Phelps, Ryan Lochte and Natalie Coughlin—along with beach volleyball, track and field, diving and basketball at Gym Sports Bar (167 Eighth Ave, between 18th and 19th Sts, 212-337-2439). The bar has long sponsored local athletic leagues, and the watch party for the swimming events on Aug 14 will feature roving servers selling Jell-O shots while clad in Speedos (or less). Be sure to get there before 9pm for the two-for-one happy hour.
